Irwin D. Behm
(Pappy - Pop Pop)
Thank you to all our relatives & friends who sent cards, sympathy bouquets, funeral flowers, or who provided meals for our family, or other kindnesses shown during this difficult time of our lives. Thanks also to hospice who helped care for Irwin so he could be at home with us. Last, but not least, thanks to the Walbert Funeral Home, whose kind compassion helped make this a little more bearable.

CUSTOMER SERVICE REPRESENTATIVE HELP WANTED

SEITZ BROTHERS is looking for you! You have to be good at talking with others on the phone, while scheduling them for service using our web-based software. You have to keep your cool during those occasional times when customers aren't too happy, and you have to turn them around and make them happy. You also have to work with our service team, the people out in the field taking care of the "creepy crawlers" for our customers, letting them know about new stops, changing their schedules, and relaying information to them from their customers. Besides having good people skills (getting along with others), you have to be organized and attentive.

We expect you to look out for your customers, so we look out for you. This is a full-time position. Benefit package includes paid holidays, snow days, vacation and health benefits.

Please come into our office at 7370 Hamilton Blvd., Trexlertown between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. to fill out an application, or email us for an application at info@seitzbrothers.com
